One bid has been given for a commercial landscaping service to mow, more are being sought.

The porta-jon is being replaced and moved to the south west corner of the parking lot for easier access.

Executive Officer report –

Not present, no report

League Secretary report –

Thursday night bullseye league still shooting at 7pm.

The 1800 bullseye matches attendance is down 30% this year due to Covid and attendance problems. The last 1800 was October 1st. The winning competitors in the 1800 matches have contributed their winning to our youth league in the amount of $125.

We are looking into the possibility of Military and CCW matches for next year.

Chief Security & Safety Officer report –
