Membership Committee report –

Two first time prospects, one prospect not present due to work issues, three third time prospects.

This was the last meeting for Mike Masten as chairman of the Membership Committee, Brian Geary will be taking over the Committee in January.

Old Business:

Invoice payment are due to the Treasurer by close of business on 12-31-22 in order not to incur any penalties.

Brad Soddors will have a display and discussion of military bayonets at the January regular club meeting following the business meeting.

If you have a bayonet that has a family history or a story, feel free to bring it to the meeting to share with other club members

New Business:

Tim Nead informed the club that the CMP is still accepting applications for the drawing of surplus 1911's that they have available. Go to the CMP website (<https://thecmp.org/sales-and-service/1911-information/>) to get details. If you use the club membership card as a supporting document, please contact secretary@lprcoho.com for a letter to show that you are a current member. A signed letter will be mailed to you.

The drawing for the Mossberg rifle was held and the lucky winner was Richard Miller. Our thanks go out to all that participated in the raffle.

Member Recognition:

Recognition goes out to all of our club members for without you we would not have as great a club as we have.

Rule Review:

Repeating from last month, there is no hunting allowed at the club. Also, shotguns using slugs may be sighted in on the rifle range, but please use the election signs setup below the 100 yd backstop. Do not shoot at the black part of the backstop as it causes major damage to the black material.

To shoot shotguns using buckshot the 50ft backstop at the pistol range may be used, but please do not shoot to many times at the same spot as it causes damage.

50/50 Raffle:

The raffle took in $103, Jack Carr was the winner and he donated his winnings back to the Youth League.
