League Secretary report –

Vince Keeney has bowling pins to donate to the club. A new .22 rimfire season is starting. The June 1800 Bullseye match had a good turnout and good weather. The Thursday evening bullseye league is doing well.

Technical Officers report –

N/A

Chief Security & Safety Officer report –

On 5/13 we had 5 prospective members safety trained. Th youth league begins on 6/14.

Special Events Coordinator –

The family picnic is on the calendar for 9/30 from 12-3pm

Membership Committee report –

Membership currently stands at 207 full members.

Old Business:

During one of the last Thursday night bullseye league match a car containing 3 teenagers came through the Gate and two males entered through the open door of the pistol house. The pistol house door was propped open with the bullseye shooters going down range to score targets. Luckily there was someone still in the pistol house to chase the intruders away.

PLEASE DO NOT LEAVE THE PISTOL HOUSE DOOR OPEN.

New Business:

Brad Sodders is promoting the use of a combination lock on the gate until the gate project is finished. Jeff Williamsen reminded the members of Issue #1 and encouraged a yes vote to preserve the integrity of the Ohio Constitution.

Member Recognition:

Tim Need – Shotgun $250 ($5 below wholesale, no tax, no FFL fees) for the picnic

Rule Update:

The Railroad ties are “NOT” target backers. Place targets on appropriate target frames or backers. Shootin up the infrastructure of the club cost us money and creates work for the members.

50/50 Raffle:

Amount = $69 Winner= Wayne Stevens
